CASE NO. 25-CRM-002

vs.

NATHAN J. WATKINS,
Defendant.

AFFIDAVIT ON COMPLAINT
(O.R.C. 2935.09)

STATE OF OHIO, MERCER COUNTY, SS:

I, Patrolman Jeremy Kerr, do hereby state that I am employed at the Celina Police Department. The following did occur:

On January 10, 2025, at approximately 6:51 P.M, Celina Officers were dispatched to a reported domestic violence incident at 637 Hoying Street, in the City of Celina, Mercer County, Ohio. A citizen that was outside heard the incident occurring inside the residence.

When I arrived, I saw a male that I know to be, Nathan Watkins, in front of 637 Hoying Street. I contacted Nathan and asked what was going on. Watkins said that he was just getting his belongings, so that he could leave. I asked him to remain with Sgt. Bartlett, while I went inside the home.

I went inside 637 Hoying and contacted a female I know to be Victim # 1, Watkin's girlfriend. Victim # 1 said that her and Watkins have been having relationship problems and got into an argument today. It escalated and while she was in the bathroom, he cornered her and wouldn't let her leave. Watkins grabbed her by the throat and slammed her against the wall. She got away and went into the living room. They continued to argue, and he grabbed her by the throat a second time and threw her onto a couch. She told him he needed to leave and went upstairs to gather his belongings.

I did see that Victim 1's neck was red all the way around her neck and upper shoulder area.

Watkins was placed under arrest and transported to the Mercer County Adult Detention Facility.
